

* For majors declared since Fall 2006 ****
Feminist Studies Course Offerings - Fall 2008

Concentrations listed at left margin: 1 = Culture, Power, and Representation. Focuses on representation as both political and aesthetic. Situates the study of everyday life practices and cultural forms in the context of larger political and historical relations.

2 = Law, Politics, and Social Change. Examines social change through legal, economic, and political processes. Emphasizes movements for social justice and struggles over gender, race, class, and sexuality.

3 = Science, Technology, and Medicine. Explores how science, technology, and medicine reshape relations of power and knowledge. Highlights the centrality of ethical concerns and values in the scientific production of gendered, raced, and sexed bodies. (Note: students may petition to take one lower division or upper-division course in the sciences for the concentration with the approval of their faculty advisor).

4 = Sexuality Studies. Examines institutions and power relations through the category of sexuality. Explores bodies and practices across geographical and cultural borders.

Key: C = Core, G = Graduate

A. Courses acceptable for Feminist Studies credit.

C	Feminist Stu	1	Introduction to Feminisms	B. Aptheker
2	Feminist Stu	112	Women & the Law (x-listed as Poli 112)	G. Dent
2,3	Feminist Stu	133	Science and The Body	K. Barad
2,3	Feminist Stu	194R*	Global Health and Reproduction	M. Moodie
2	Feminist Stu	196	Feminist Teaching Methods	B. Aptheker
2,4	Anthropology	126	Sexuality and Society	C. Martin Shaw
1	HISC	113	Participatory Dissent: Feminist Approaches to Pedagogy and Visual Culture	N. Loveless
1	Literature	103A	British Literature and Culture to 1740: Early Modern Women Writers	M. Hendricks
2	Politics	103	Feminist Interventions	V. Seth
2	Psychology	140G	Women's Lives in Context	S. Grabe
2,4	Psychology	140Q	Social Psychology of Sex and Gender	C. Leaper
1,4	Sociology	149	Sex and Gender	T. McNeill

B. Courses acceptable for credit by petition and special arrangement by the instructor.

2,3	Anthropology	134	Medical Anthropology: An Introduction	N. Chen
1,2	History	106B	Asian and Asian American History	A. Yang
2	Sociology	111	Family and Society	W. Martyna
1,2	Sociology	129	Popular Culture	J. Bettie

C. Courses acceptable to satisfy the 80-level requirement.

C	Feminist Stu	80P	War in Film and Culture	N. Atanasoski
C	Feminist Stu	80S	Women in Music (x-listed as Music 80S)	T. Merchant
C	Biology	80A	Female Physiology and Gynecology	M. Zavanelli
C	HISC	80N	The Politics of Emotion & Emotions of Pol	T. Spira

* A senior seminar. May be used to fulfill the Feminist Studies senior exit requirement.

Last Updated: 12/10/08 nc

* For majors declared since Fall 2006 ****
Feminist Studies Course Offerings - Winter 2009

Concentrations listed at left margin: 1 = Culture, Power, and Representation. Focuses on representation as both political and aesthetic. Situates the study of everyday life practices and cultural forms in the context of larger political and historical relations.

2 = Law, Politics, and Social Change. Examines social change through legal, economic, and political processes. Emphasizes movements for social justice and struggles over gender, race, class, and sexuality.

3 = Science, Technology, and Medicine. Explores how science, technology, and medicine reshape relations of power and knowledge. Highlights the centrality of ethical concerns and values in the scientific production of gendered, raced, and sexed bodies. (Note: students may petition to take one lower division or upper-division course in the sciences for the concentration with the approval of their faculty advisor).

4 = Sexuality Studies. Examines institutions and power relations through the category of sexuality. Explores bodies and practices across geographical and cultural borders.

Key: C = Core, G = Graduate

A. Courses acceptable for Feminist Studies credit.

C	Feminist Stu	100	Feminist Theories	A. Arondekar
1	Feminist Stu	126	Images, Power & Politics: Vis/Text Analysis	N. Atanasoski
2	Feminist Stu	127	NGO's – Non-Governmental Organizations	M. Moodie
1,2	Feminist Stu	139~	African American Women's History	B. Aptheker
2	Feminist Stu	168	Topics in Feminist Philosophy	J. Hoy
2,4	Feminist Stu	194N*	Gender, Class and Sex in Shanghai	E. Honig
1,2	Feminist Stu	194P*	Religion, Gender, and Politics	N. Atanasoski
G	Feminist Stu	214	Feminist Science Studies	K. Barad
G	Feminist Stu	264	The Idea of Africa (x-listed as HISC 264)	G. Dent
1,2	American Stu	123F	Native American Women	R. Ramirez
2,4	Community Stu	100X	Sex, Gender and Sexuality	M. Ochoa
2,3	Community Stu	148	Women's Health Activism	A. Steiner
2	ECON/LGST	183	Women in the Economy	L. Kletzer
2	Education	135	Gender and Education	C. Cruz
1,4	Film	194E*	Globalization, Gender and Sexuality	P. Limbrick
2	History	145	Gender and Colonialism	E. Honig
2	History	196W^	Women & Power from 1100-1600	N. Silleras-Fernandez
1,4	LTPR	162	Renaissance Versions of Gender	D. Shemek
3	Psychology	140L	Women's Bodies & Psychol Well-Being	S. Grabe
2	Psychology	159M^	Transnational Feminism	S. Grabe
1,2,4	Sociology	120	Gender, Sexuality, and Cultural Politics	J. Bettie
2	Sociology	144	Sociology of Women	C. West

B. Courses acceptable for credit by petition and special arrangement by the instructor.

1,2	American Stu	109B	Science Fiction in Multicultural America	C. Ramirez
2	History	140C	Revolutionary China	G. Hershatter
2	HISC	118	Jewish Social Movements	B. Epstein
1,2	LTMO	125L	Films on the Border	J. Burton-Carvajal
2	Psychology	140B	African American Psychology	A. White
2	Psychology	142	Psychology of Oppression and Liberation	A. White
2,4	Psychology	159D^	Psychology of Sexual Aggression	E. Zurbriggen
2	Sociology	142	Language and Social Interaction	W. Martyna

C. Courses acceptable to satisfy the 80-level requirement

C	Feminist Stu	80F	Feminisms of/and the Global South	A. Arondekar
C	Anthropology	80B	African Women	C. Martin Shaw
C	HISC	80I	Philosophy, Race, and Gender	S. Parekh

~ Can fulfill senior exit requirement with permission of instructor.

* A senior seminar. May be used to fulfill the Feminist Studies senior exit requirement.

^ Course may be taken for concentration or elective credit only, not as senior exit requirement.

Last Updated: 12/16/08 nc

* For majors declared since Fall 2006 ****
Feminist Studies Course Offerings - Spring 2009

Concentrations listed at left margin: 1 = Culture, Power, and Representation. Focuses on representation as both political and aesthetic. Situates the study of everyday life practices and cultural forms in the context of larger political and historical relations.

2 = Law, Politics, and Social Change. Examines social change through legal, economic, and political processes. Emphasizes movements for social justice and struggles over gender, race, class, and sexuality.

3 = Science, Technology, and Medicine. Explores how science, technology, and medicine reshape relations of power and knowledge. Highlights the centrality of ethical concerns and values in the scientific production of gendered, raced, and sexed bodies. (Note: students may petition to take one lower division or upper-division course in the sciences for the concentration with the approval of their faculty advisor).

4 = Sexuality Studies. Examines institutions and power relations through the category of sexuality. Explores bodies and practices across geographical and cultural borders.

Key: C = Core, G = Graduate

A. Courses acceptable for Feminist Studies credit.

2	Feminist Stu	116	Feminist Ethnographies	M. Moodie
1,2	Feminist Stu	145	Racial and Gender Formations in the U.S.	A. Arondekar
1,2	Feminist Stu	150	Women's Culture	B. Aptheker
2,3	Feminist Stu	194D*	Feminist Science Studies	K. Barad
G	Feminist Stu	201	Topics in Postcolonial Studies	A. Arondekar
1,2	American Stu	127E	Asian American Women	T. Mai
1	Film	132C	Gender and Global Cinema	Y. Wang

B. Courses acceptable for credit by petition and special arrangement by the instructor.

2	Anthropology	124	Anthropology of Religion	A. Pandey
2,3	Community Stu	111	Ageism and Activism	A. Steiner
2	History	126	History of the Southwest: Colonial Period to 1920	L. Hass
2	Psychology	153	Psychology of Poverty and Social Class	I. Waugh
3	Sociology	121	Sociology of Health and Medicine	J. Reardon
2,4	Sociology	145	Sociology of Men	R. Bryant-Anderson
2	Sociology	150	Sociology of Death and Dying	W. Martyna

C. Courses acceptable to satisfy the 80-level requirement.

C	Feminist Stu	80K	Feminism and Science	K. Barad
C	Feminist Stu	80R	Tribes, Castes, and Women	M. Moodie
C	Biology	80A	Female Physiology and Gynecology	M. Zavanelli
C	History	80N	U.S. Women's History: Women at Work	L. Haas
C	HistCon	80Q	Science as Culture and Practice: Plants, Animals, Science, Food, and Justice	D. Haraway
C	Theater Arts	80Q	Queer Theater	M. Rucker

* A senior seminar. May be used to fulfill the Feminist Studies senior exit requirement.

Last Updated: 3/9/09 nc